against.

Now, they reap of that unwise sowing.

The terms of the protocol are openly violated. Instead of its affording any protection against intimidation and fraud, the enemies of good order, impartial registration and fair election are issuing addresses to the people calculated to excite acrimony and violence at the polls. In several of the parishes intimidation has become so open and strong that only a portion of the colored voters will dare to register and vote.

Emboldened by the hope that the Federal power will not interpose, under the existing treaty, the spirit of oppression will spread throughout the State until it will not be safe for a colored man in any disaffected

If Gov. Kellogg and his party, instead of treating with the revolutionists, had refused to recognize them and had appealed to the Federal power to sustain impartial registration and an honest election, even with bayonets, if needs be, a small force would have been adequate, under the disfiture, to secure a point which under this dalliance with the murderers of colored citizens may now be regarded as lost

There is now no guaranty under broken faith that the soil of Louisiana will not be drenched in Republican blood during the coming election. The only hope now is that Republicans in Louisiana may be sustained by the Federal Government in the full exercise of the right of suffrage with out intimidation. The embers of revolution can be kept from flashing into flames again and deluging the State with more blood, only by a stronger power than comes of broken faith on the part of the revolutionists, or a State government of marked weakness and inability to maintain itself without Federal bayonets. It is to be hoped that the indications will lead te a prompt and efficient provision on the part of the Federal power to secure a republican form of government for the State

ECONOMY IS WEALTH.

The truth of this trite old saving is som imes doubted. The doubters are usually young persons who have had but little experience in the earning and expenditure of money. And there is no saying more truthful in the world than "easy comes, easy goes." So long as a child can get what money it wants to spend by asking its parents or guardians for it (be that guar dian "Uncle Sam" or any other man) it is not likely to know much of the practical value of money. It keeps no account of the sums expended nor of the cost of food and clothing. The young man who gets a salary of twelve hundred dollars a year and boards at home with his parents without giving them any remuneration for his subsistence, but who smokes and indulges in billiards and drinks, and frequents the theatre, is at a loss to know what becomes of his hundred dollars each month, and his parents are even more bewildered than he.

But a slight calculation will make it all Half a dozen eigars, (and less than this number would hardly suffice for a day,) at three for a quarter, cost fifty cents, which self and friends, at fifteen cents, or ninety cents per day, is twenty-seven dollars per month. He gets off cheaply at billiards, if he plays them at all, at five dollars per month. His suppers and lunches cannot cost him less than fifty cents daily, on the average, if he takes them regularly, which is another fifteen dollars. Four times to the theatre with a lady, (or twice a week without,) will cost him from three to five dollars each, which we will call fifteen dollars more.

All this amounts to seventy-seven dollars per month for absolute luxuries; things which can be eliminated from one's expenses whenever necessity requires. This eaves him twenty-three dollars for charities, clothing, hats, boots, gloves, car fare, shaving, boot-cleaning, etc., none of which have been included in the above estimates

There are hundreds of young persons in this city who are expending their entire earnings upon superfluous dress and the gratification of those passions, appetites and lesires which will annoy them by their cravings for long years to come, when they will be obliged to take care of themselves and a family of their own in addition, and perhaps upon a smaller salary than they are now receiving. They do these things thoughtlessly and heedlessly, many times because they see others do them, and they lo not wish to be considered stingy or mean. What can be meaner and stingier than to sponge upon aged parents for board when they are getting good salaries. If they would keep expense accounts, as they should be instructed to do from their school days, so that they could always tell at a glance their living expenses for each month,

But suppose our young friends should decide to cut off some of their luxuries, deny themselves a certain pleasure, and invest the amount of its cost in some way so that it might accumulate, how soon would it amount to a handsome capital! They might take out a policy in a co-operative or mutual life insurance company, payable by monthly installments; or take a share or two in some building company or association. In this manner they could, in four years, by laying away fifty dollars per month, which they are now (worse than) throwing away, sink twenty-five hundred dollars principal regardless of accumula-

But there are many ways in which econ-mists may invest their small earnings so that they will be constantly accumulating something. The great thing to be remembered is that the only sure road to wealth is the living within one's income and investing something. There are in this District over five thousand Government employees, who ought to save by this rule at east ten dollars per month each. This would be one hundred and twenty dollars a year each, or six hundred thousand dol-ars per annum in the aggregate. It may be said that the money is all spent here and remains here. That may be true. But it gets into a few hands, and makes the rich richer and the poor poorer. By the economic policy all the Government employees might at the end of four years be-ome small capitalists. It is not the un-ucky who are always poor. It is the

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN HAS A LARGER CIRCULATION THAN ANT OTHER MORNING PAPER IN THE DISTRICT OF CO-

SATURDAY MORNING ...... OCTOBER 0. 18741 BISMARCK, it seems, is unable to find out where the Von Arnim letters are. Why does he not try the New York Sun office? That journal is famous for thefts of this

BY ALL MEANS let the red assassins, Santanta, and Big Tree, be captured and executed, but don't touch a hair of the heads of the white murderers of Southern Republicans. That is the logic of the Southern Lesgues. THE SOUTHERN Democratic Governors who are talking about a convention to heartening influence of the recent discomsettle the affairs of that section had better remain at home and punish the lawless scoundrels who are hourly murdering their fellow-citizens. A SOUTHWESTERN PAPER says "the 'social customs of Washington are not ex-"actly like the customs here." We should say so. If they were we would have to build a couple of more jails and employ a score or so of hangmen.

IN THE OPINION of the New York World and Tribune, the only issue in the New York State campaign is the third term And yet the Presidential election does not take place for two years and nearly two months. Anything to best Grant!

THE NEW YORK World is calling upon Gov. Dix to define his position. When Dix was ordering the shooting of the man who would haul down the American flag the World was doing its utmost to have it hauled down. That's the difference between the two.

IN THE OPINION of the sage of the Courier-Journal, things are in a bad way, and something must be done soon. Either the North should give the South a military protectorate right away, or do something else. The Courier-Journal has the sagacity to see exactly what is needed.

THE HARMONY which prevailed in the Massachusetts State convention is a matter of profound disappointment to the opposition press. For weeks it was denouncing Gen. Butler, because, according to it, he intended to make a row, and now it is denouncing him that he did not. B. F. B. must be abused for something.

Some of our indiscreet Democratic exchanges in remote sections of the country are abusing the Hon. John Morrissey. This is wrong. Mr. Morrissey is the leader of the Democratic party in New York city, and if we should have a Democratic Administration in 1877 it is just as likely as | apparent. not that he may be made Secretary of the

THE NEW YORK Graphic thinks the is fifteen dollars. Half a dozen drinks for salaries of our representatives abroad are entirely too low and ought to be taken into consideration by a convention of the rich men of the country, who should see that they are properly paid. It adds: "If the press " of the country was really independent. "instead of howling about 'salary grabs' " and increase of pay, it would persistently "rebuke the average voter, who looks " with jealousy upon anybody who re-" ceives more than three dollars a day, and " yet permits himself to be swindled by all manner of indirect means. Parsimony " in the payment of good public officers is ' wasterulness in disguise."

ALL accounts from the State of New Vork indicate that Gov Div will be reelected by an overwhelming majority. His popularity is universal among the masses, who believe implicitly in his patriotism and integrity. His trip through the western portion of the State has been one continued evation. The only danger now apprehended as possible by leading Republi cans is that the assurance of success may lend to carelessness and relaxation of efforts on the day of election. But this must be guarded against. Every true Republican will continue to do his whole duty until the votes are counted and the returns are announced. This course will insure to the Republican ticket a majority equal if not superior to that of 1872.

WHERE DO THEY STAND NOW? In 1872 the Democratic party, in national convention in Baltimore, accepted Horace Greeley as their standard-bearer for the Presidency, and in their platform placed the following plank: "We recognize the equality of all men before the law, "and hold that it is the duty of the Gov-"ernment, in its dealings with the people to mete out equal and exact justice to all, " of whatever nativity, race, color or per-"sussion, religious or political." While the campaign was in progress, Mr. Greeley, who was then the chief and accepted leader of the party, said: "I hope the time "will come when our educational institu-"fions and seminaries will be open to men of all races with a freedom, with a hos-"pitality which has never yet been en-'joyed. I trust the time will come when 'no man's color will exclude him from any 'religious organization whatever." Where does this same Democratic party stand today? The massacres in Grant parish: the assassinations in Conshatta, New Oricans and Trenton are the answer.

DEVELOPMENT OF FRAUD. It is now evident that the treaty entered into between the Kellogg government, as represented by the Republican State Central Committee and the revolutionists, which resulted in a protocol promising fair registra tion, and an election free from intimidation and fraud, is as hollow, hypocritical and fraudulent in its intent, so far as the Democrats are concerned, as it can well be. The Republicans seem to have forgotten that it is not possible to league with the devil without getting the worst of the compact. They must have known, unless they were under the excitement created by the attempted revolution, bereft of their senses, that the proposed conference was only a suare laid to entrap the Kellogg government and party into a recognition of the McEnery dynasty. In view of the recent events the Republicans were, by far, too credulous, and are now paying the penalty of a hasty and inconsiderate entertainment of a plan concocted by their enemies to delude and betray them and their State into fresh difficulties.

When the President of the United States proffered the strong arm of the Constitution to crush out the McEnery rebellion, he did so with the admonition to Governor Kellogg that no recognition should be given to the government attempted to be set up by the revolutionists. This decided indication of uncompromising hostility to the need not and does not care whether school movement of the McEneryites had the desired effect. The revolution at once subsided. The Kellogg government was re-

POLITICAL NOTES.

So far as heard from only three counties in Georgia-Liberty, Newton and Glynn-have gone Republican. The indications are that the re delegation from Geergia in the next Congress will be Democratic. Senators Clayton and Dorsey, Judge McClure and a large number of other leading Republicans of Arkansas, will leave Little Rock to-day to attend the Chattanooga convention. They will be joined by the delegation from Texas. The Albany Evening Journal says: "There is a slight difference between the two candidates for Governor in this State. The friends of Gen. Dix point triumphantly to what he has done; while the friends of Tilden point timidly to what

The New York State Executive Committee of the Independent Temperance party have with-drawn the nominations of Judge Groo and Dr. Sutton for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, and decided to accept the regular State prohibition ticket, headed by Myron H. Clark.

On the 13th instant, as percall, the Republicans of the reconstructed States meet in convention at Chattanooga, Tennessee. The call of this conation has been widely circulated through the South, and a isvorable response has been received. Much good can be done the whole country by a adicious course on the part of the delegates sent there. It is expected that Virginia and Maryland will be represented. Arrangements have been made for round-trip tickets from Washington to the convention for $33,50, to be obtained at 603 Pennsylvania avenue.

Elections will be held next Tuesday in Ohlo idinna, Iowa, Nebraska, West Virginia, Arkansas, and in the Territory of Dakota. Ohio does not elect a Governor, but the choice of other State officers and members of Congress make it an important election. Indiana and Iowa elect State flicers below Governor and members of Congress Nebraska elects a full State ticket; while the Legislature to be chosen will have the naming of a United States Senator. West Virginia elects Congressmen and a Legislature that will choose the successor of Senator Boreman. The contest over the new constitution will be the chief in. terest in Arkansas. Dakota chooses a Delegate to Congress.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, 3 General Order, Washington, October 4, 1874, General Order.

Commodore Melaneton B. Woolsey, of the United States navy, died of yellow fever while in command of the navy yard at Pensacola, on the 2d inmand of the navy yard at Penasocia, on the 2d instant.

In announcing to the naval service the loss of this officer, the Department feels called upon to express its appreciation of the high character which Commodore Woolsey gained during the war of the rebellion, and of the self-sacrificing spirit he evinced during the deadly pestilence which has lately descined the Penasocia navy yard.

Under orders to proceed to the North, upon important service, after the fever had broken out in the town of Penasocia, but not within the yard, he suggested to the Department that he had belter remain within his command. He was informed that even under such circumstances be might properly comply with his command. He was informed that even under such circumstances be might properly comply with his orders, but he replied that he preferred to remain at his post. Remaining there, he died, a martyr to his sense of duty.

He has thus bequeathed to the navy an example of herolem, such as may occur in penceful days, and of devotion to his duty that cannot be excelled in time of war.
